Overall Goals of the Counseling to Faith series

The reader will:

1. Become more successful in the major life task of positive self-management. God, society, employers, family and friends all hold us responsible in this area.
2. Better understand and cooperate with God in His role as the “Wonderful Counselor” in our lives.
3. Increase their ability to support/help/minister to others.
4. Gain a deeper Christian worldview by seeing that the Bible does address the issues that the field of Psychology and Counseling attempt to explain.
5. Overcome the forces within themselves that degrade their ability to trust God. Faith creates the resiliency necessary to withstand the rigors of this “fallen” world.

Objectives of Counseling to Faith: I - Learning the Ways of the Wonderful Counselor

The author:

6. “Walks” the reader through the scriptures on how we are made in the image of God but we are “fallen”.
7. Integrates our design and sin nature with Jesus’ teaching in the Parable of the Sower, where Jesus identifies four different spiritual conditions.

8. Describes each of the four conditions using Gospel examples and his personal life experiences.
9. Takes the reader through a clinical observation of reviewing Jesus' interactions/interventions with each of the four types of spiritual conditions.

Objectives of Counseling to Faith: II - He Restores My Soul

The author:

10. Highlights God's desire to restore our souls. (Ps 23:3)
11. Presents Biblical resiliency as God's solution for us in overcoming the assaults of this "fallen" world.
12. Introduces and explains in detail the Biblical treatment protocols for each of the three damaged spiritual conditions highlighted in Jesus' teaching in the Parable of the Sower.
13. Presents the need for each church to be a functional re-creation center, which intentionally targets the restoration of the souls of those that attend.
14. Summarizes some Christian disciplines that promote the restoration of our souls.

The Parable of the Sower is the foundation for the Counseling to Faith series.

Jesus validated the high importance of this parable.

"Do you not understand this parable? And how will you understand all the parables?" (Mk. 4:13). "His disciples asked him what this parable meant. He said, 'To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God'" (Lk 8:9-10)
